Day 02 : Minicoy Island	Located between 8° 17° North Latitudes and 73° 04° East Longitudes, 398 km away from Kochi Early morning Ship will reach Minicoy Island Minicoy is, in a sense, isolated from the main group of islands and lies about 200 kms south of the northern group. It is 10.6 kms long and is the second largest island. Minicoy has one of the largest lagoons with a small uninhabited islet Viringili on its southern side. Minicoy is distinct from the northern group of islands in its culture, language dress etc. It has a cluster of 11 villages, which are called "Ava'h" each presided over by an elected village elder called Bodukaka. Traditionally all powers to manage village affairs are vested in him. Each village has a village house beautifully maintained and decorated. Minicoy is renowned for its tradition dance - the Lava performed on festive occasions. Colorful race boats called "Jahadhoni" are a feast to the eye of any Tourist. A large number of men from this island are employed as seamen in ships all over the world. Mahal is the spoken language. Minicoy is an important center for tuna fishing and a tuna-canning factory on the island processes the catch. A 300-foot tall lighthouse built in 1885 by the British is a majestic landmark. The beaches have bathing huts with change rooms and facilities for water sports are available. After breakfast proceed to Minicoy by Pablo boat, nonstop entertainment ashore in Minicoy island like swimming, snorkeling, kayaking, glass boating, sightseeing and diving. 06:00 to 06:30 Morning tea with Snacks  07:00 to 07:30 Breakfast on board  07:30 to 08:00 Disembarkation (Follow the announcement on board)  08:00 to 09:00 reception with welcome drinks  09:00 to 13:00 Water Sports activities  13:00 to 13:45 Lunch in the beach (Buffet separately for veg and Non Veg)  14:00 to 15:30 sightseeing  16:00 to 16:30 Evening Tea with Snacks  16:30 to 16:45 Boarding / Departure time to ship and move to Next Island  20:00 to 20:45 Dinner (Buffet separately for veg and Non Veg)
Day 03 : Kalpeni Island

Located between 10° 05° North Latitudes and 73° 39° East Longitudes, 287 km away from Kochi. Early morning Ship will reach Kalpeni Island along with two small islets of Tilakkam and Pitti and the uninhabited island of Cheriyam in the north form a single atoll. A peculiar feature of Kalpeni is a huge storm bank of coral debris along its eastern and southeastern shorelines. It is a socially progressive island and it was here that girls first went to school when women's education was considered taboo. One can swim, snorkel or reef-walk in the vast lagoon and indulge in water sports on kayaks, sailboats and pedal boats. Two bathing huts with change rooms are available at Koomel Beach. A nonstop entertainment ashore in Kalpeni Island.
